The Amildar reports that "Stal jadti chitthe" of Rondri shows that the Temple was in the enjoyment of inam lands dry Maji no. 188 and wet Maji no 393 till 1873-4 when owing to the dis-repaired condition of the Temple building, they were resumed to Govt., that dry land being unfit for cultivation became part of pomal no. 68, and wet land became a sub-no of S. no. 156 and was given to the Patel who is unwilling to part with it for the benefit of the institution. He recommends that a 3-2 of kharab-ut of S. no. 204 and wet land measuring 20 gt of S. no. 67 in the villages of Kallur and Alamgiri may be granted as inam in lieu of.

Sir,

Adverting to your Original Memorandum No. [illegible] dated 14th March 1914, calling for report on the petition of Mutta Munisamappa and others of Kallur in the Srinivasapur Taluk, stating that the Sri Eswaraswami temple at the place which was in a dilapidated condition has been repaired by them at their own cost and -- praying for a monthly grant of Rs.2 for Deparadhane etc in the temple, I have the honor to state as follows.

2. The temple in question which was in disrepair was restored at a cost of Rs.600 by the petitioners who also incurred a large -- expenditure for the installation ceremony which was celebrated on the 11th May 1914. They have also made satisfactory arrangements for the regular conduct of services in the temple. They now pray for a monthly cash grant of Rs.2 for Paditharu and Deeparadhane.

3. The petitioners also represent that the personal inam lands gifted to the temple may be ordered to be treated as Devadaya inams and quit rent levied on them, remitted.

4. The temple in question was originally endowed with inam nds, but as it was in disrepair, they were resumed to Government -- prior to the Survey Settlement. As these lands are in the possession of different persons who are not willing to part with them, I beg that dry land measuring 3 acres and 2 guntas of kharab out of S.No.204 and wet land measuring 20 guntas out of S.No.67 in the villages of Kallur and Alamgiri respectively may be granted as inam in lieu of those originally granted.

5. The villagers are very earnest about the improvement of the temple. I think their prayer deserves favourable consideration.

6. The entire vernacular file of correspondence ending with the Malur Sub Division Officer's Jadi No.1501 dated 3rd May 1916 is herewith submitted for reference.
